Need a challenge?

We are looking for exceptional associates to join our close-knit and expanding European Competition Law team. Our team-based approach delivers superior service to our clients and offers a very attractive environment for our associates to grow their professional skills. We involve our associates in all aspects of the work and expect them to have superior analytical skills and commercial sense.

Our clients are leading global companies that span a wide range of industries. We offer a rare opportunity to work on a broad range of cutting-edge competition law issues including cartels, merger control, abuse of dominance, joint ventures, distribution arrangements, and complex commercial transactions.

We invite exceptional lawyers to join our European Competition Law team in Brussels.
