

Covington's 1L Patent Litigation Summer Program offers aspiring patent litigators the opportunity to receive in-depth training and tailored mentoring from lawyers in our award-winning Patent Litigation practice. Our 1L Summers are staffed onto active litigation matters and are given meaningful and substantive assignments—just like our full-time associates.

Overview

Covington boasts a world-renowned Patent Litigation group sought out by pharmaceutical and technology giants for their toughest matters. Covington's patent litigators have received recognition from Chambers & Partners, Managing IP, American Lawyer, Law360, The American Lawyer, and more.

We invite law students with a sincere interest in science and technology to join Covington as 1L Patent Litigation Summers. The ideal candidate is interested in joining the Patent Litigation practice upon graduation. A scientific/technical background in life sciences, electrical engineering, computer science, and/or physics is preferred but not required.

Salary

Summer associates are paid a weekly salary of $4,326.

Covington is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate in employment practices on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.

How to Apply

The application deadline is January 17, 2025. Please submit a cover letter indicating you are applying for the 1L Patent Litigation Summer Program, resume, undergraduate and law school transcripts, legal writing sample, and list of references (including a faculty reference) to the office contact below. Please submit your law school transcript by January 24, 2025 in order to complete your application if not yet available.
