

Manager of Professional Development

Human Resources Department

Summary:

The Manager of Professional Development, will work alongside the Managing Partners for Legal Personnel (MPLPs) and Directors of Professional Development on all aspects of attorney professional development. Develop, implement, and assist in leading DC attorney professional development strategies.

Email Resume Here to Apply

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree, JD preferred, with a minimum of five years of broad-based career development experience.
 - Experience integrating various coaching disciplines and be accredited by a nationally recognized coaching association.
 - Significant experience in legal, consulting, or other professional services organizations, preferred.
 - Demonstrated success establishing, developing, and managing robust career development functions in a national or international, multi-office environment.
 - Strong interpersonal skills, including the ability to work effectively in a consensus-drive organization and to create consensus-based support for strategies and processes.
 - Dynamic energy level. Passion for driving change and delivering innovative solutions.
- ### Duties and Responsibilities:
- Assist in identifying associate career development needs, and design and manage the implementation of programs relating to attorney career development.
 - Work closely with MPLPs/Vice Chairs, Assigning Partners and Practice Group Leaders to help associates with integration and advancement issues such as navigating firm resources, seeking out appropriate breadth and depth of work experiences, maximizing firm, practice group and office resources, successfully handling interpersonal conflicts and proactively addressing career advancement concerns with both associates and senior lawyers.
 - Provide confidential advice and coaching to DC attorneys at varying levels of seniority on all aspects of career growth and development, including career planning and management, time and project management, work/life balance, transitions to/from leaves and potential next steps in their professional careers.
 - Meet with DC associates to welcome them to the firm and provide them with resources available to them through the Professional Development Department.
 - Provide support to the MPLPs and Directors with regard to associate needs including staffing and utilization. Provide ongoing analysis of workloads; track skills and experiences needed to make recommendations on staffing needs. And assist in coordinating staffing needs for specific assignments.
 - Identify individual associate training gaps and propose solutions.
 - In collaboration with the Director for Professional Development, oversee administration of performance evaluation processes for associates in the DC.

Qualifications (Continued):

- Excellent written and verbal skills.
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills, ability to maintain a high degree of confidentiality, discretion, and composure during stress situations.
- A highly organized and self-directed approach to work with the ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously.

Duties & Responsibilities (Continued):

- Create and maintain relationships within the firm at all levels, establishing a reputation as a trusted advisor for career advice and guidance.
- Collaborate with Directors of Professional Development to develop a robust system for measuring the effectiveness and ROI of coaching programs (internal and external), utilizing data-driven insights to inform strategy, suggest adjustments and make improvements.
- Develop and implement strategies to create a pipeline of external opportunities for associates, both by collaborating with others on secondment opportunities and keeping abreast of potential inhouse roles for associates looking to transition out of the firm.
- Work with the Firm's Pro Bono team to promote and enhance associate involvement in rotations and other developmental opportunities.
- Work with other Professional Development teams across offices on associate satisfaction surveys.
- Assist Director with DC budget for initiatives and programs.
- Monitor current trends and best practices in legal talent and professional development - implement new innovations, as appropriate, to ensure the firm's efforts are innovative and cutting edge.
- Uphold high standards of confidentiality, discretion, and integrity, particularly with respect to all sensitive and/or confidential firm and client information to which this position will have access.

Status: Exempt

Reports To: Director of Professional Development

Workplace Type: Hybrid

Salary range is $129,000 - $182,000

Covington & Burling LLP is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate in any aspect of employment, including hiring, salary, promotion, discipline, termination, and benefits, on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity or expression, age, marital status, sexual orientation, family responsibility, disability (including physical handicap), or any other improper criterion.

Covington will consider qualified applicants with arrest or conviction records for employment in accordance with applicable laws, including the California Fair Chance Act, the Los Angeles Fair Chance Initiative for Hiring Fair Chance Ordinance, the Los Angeles County Fair Chance Ordinance, and the San Francisco Fair Chance Ordinance.