

CLA recognizes
Attorney
Theodore L. Garrett
as October's Volunteer
of the Month!

Attorney Theodore L. Garrett has been instrumental in assisting Blue Water Baltimore in its fight to help fix Baltimore City's antiquated sewer system. Beginning last year, Ted represented Blue Water Baltimore in its successful motion to intervene as a party to address modifications being made to a 2002 consent decree between Baltimore City, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), and the Maryland Department of the Environment (MDE).

Ted is Senior Counsel at Covington & Burling LLP in Washington, D.C. where he focuses on environmental matters.

A former Chair of the ABA Section of Environment, Energy and Resources, he represents clients in federal and state litigation and administrative proceedings, and compliance matters and transactions involving

With continued assistance from Ted and other volunteer attorneys from his law firm, in particular, Thomas Brugato, Blue Water Baltimore recently achieved a significant milestone in this matter by advocating for and achieving strong terms in the final decree relating to sewage treatment system improvements and public involvement.

On October 12, 2017, the U.S. District Judge approved the $1.6 billion plan to rehabilitate Baltimore's sewer system, and to stop discharges of sewage from flowing into the Baltimore Inner Harbor by 2030.

environmental and natural resource matters.

He is also a valued member of CLA's Board of Directors.

Covington & Burling LLP is an international law firm with over 1,000 attorneys who provide clients with corporate, litigation and investigation, regulatory and public policy, and industry based services.
